Introducing Patons® Bamboo Baby

Another great bamboo blend from Patons®, you have got to check out Patons® Bamboo Baby. Soft to the touch with just the slightest sheen, Patons® Bamboo Baby is a true worsted weight yarn, great for both quick knit baby garments and blankets. With subtle fun hues that are contemporary AND adorable, you'll be dressing the most stylish babies on the block. Solids that stand alone or look great together in fair isle, and inventive new ombres you don't want to miss. Like all of our baby yarns, Patons® Bamboo Baby is easy to wash and maintain. The fastest growing plant on earth, bamboo requires no pesticides or fertilizers and is earth-friendly. Make something that shows how much you care - both for the environment and the little ones in your life.

Greetings from Patons®

Meet the Bloggers

Have you ever thought around holiday season; "Gee, if only I had started my gift knitting in June!" ? To avoid mid-December panic, I'm getting a head start on holiday hand-knits with my Patons® blog projects. First on the list? My brother is getting a little retro-inspired home decor.

"The teacher who also learns is an intelligent teacher." I have taught many people to knit and yet knitting still teaches me new things. I like to talk knitting, even to people who just don't get it. Watch for some simple felted foot warmers from me and stay tuned to gab along with us about our adventures in knitting. Sarcasm accepted.

Never afraid to try something new, the Patons® blog is my forum for exploring the unknown. New styles, new techniques, and a few old standards as well. I'm bringing my vast love of the fiber arts to you, one beautiful Patons® design at a time. In my first project, watch out for baby cables.
